Update on Four Goal Areas

Steve Frank and Lauren Petrea reported on sub-committee work and updates to the SPSA action steps and evidence.

Discussion and updates to the goals include:

Goal #1: Differentiation: Lauren Petrea lead, Lauren Baumgartner, Melissa Zdrodowski, and Todd Zwaanstra

- An update on structured word inquiry: Lauren Petrea is working with the staff and trainers on next steps to develop a program that is naturally part of K-5 teaching
- Nancy Coleman will send a report for the Feb. 12th SSC meeting on how the 3-4-5 math differentiation teaching is progressing
 - Add a spotlight to the weekly
 - Add math differentiation to teacher presentations at Back-to-School Night

Goal #2: Middle School: Steve Frank lead, Jennifer Mull, and Meredith Raney

- Steve Frank reported on additions and revisions to Goal 2
- Social media issues are present in the middle school and a message is being sent to all parents for awareness
- Wording was added to the Middle School and SEL goals to address digital citizenship as an action step

Goal #3: Design Thinking: Harlin Hansen lead, Katie Cicero, Julie Mandia, and Marc Tarpenning

- The design sub-committee made revisions to the goal and will continue work on action steps and strategies

Goal #4: SEL: Steve Frank, Tom Limbert, Jennifer Zweig, and the SEL Committee

- The SEL sub-committee made revisions to the goal to encourage unity in class, school, and community and to address digital citizenship

On a motion by Marc Tarpenning, seconded by Jennifer Zweig, the 2017-2018 Single Plan for Student Achievement was approved unanimously. The Governing Board will consider the SPSA for approval at the January 16th School Board meeting.
